LOOKING AHEAD TO FALL EVENTS

While we cannot gather in person for our planned fall events, we still want to connect with one another and are making plans to offer those gatherings by Zoom.

September 11, 2020, at 10:00 am we plan to meet by Zoom for our Annual Meeting. We have necessary business to conduct that includes electing the 2021 Church Women United Board and receiving the annual financial report. In keeping with our 2020 focus, Diversity and Inclusiveness, we also still plan to have a book discussion of the book, Nine African American Women: Their Memories and Reflection. We announced this idea at the beginning of the year, hoping that would give people time to check out the book from the Madison Public Libraries. Whether you have read the book or not, please join us for the discussion. To get the link for the meeting you may email Gloria Carter at carter53597@tds.net or call her at 608-849-7589.

October 2, 2020 we are looking forward to our Forum which will feature a Conversation with Pia M. Kinney James, contributing author to Nine African American Women, and Madison's first Black woman police officer.

November 6, 2020 is our "World Community Day". As in past years, the women of Mount Zion Baptist and Grace Episcopal are partnering together to bring us a meaningful and joyous celebration. The event will include worship, outstanding music, and a keynote speech by Dr. Christy Clark Pujara, UW-Madison Professor of African American Studies and Recipient of the 2020 CWU Community Leadership Award. Planning is in progress for both our October Forum with Pia Kinney James and our November World Community Day. Please watch for future newsletters with more details. We hope to "see" you this fall at our Church Women United gatherings.
